

Most importantly, look at who the fascists are targeting. Who are their political enemies? These marginalized groups are the people they deem the greatest threat to their power. These are the people who have been fighting and surviving fascism a lot longer than you have. Listen to them. Support them. Help them. We're in this together. Welcome to the fight!

100 Things More Useful Than Just Voting

1. Organize a clothing drive
2. Organize a food drive
3. Distribute warming supplies in the winter
4. Distribute cooling supplies in the summer
5. Cook and distribute food
6. Attend a workshop (any subject)
7. Teach a workshop (any subject)
8. Show up to LGBTQ events
9. Show up to anti-racist events
10. Show up to protests
11. Show up to counter fascist events
12. Offer rides to and from events
13. Read a banned book
14. Organize with a union
15. Attend a picket
16. Write to a prisoner
17. Offer jail support to people after arrest
18. Offer court support for trials
19. Participate in call-ins/phone zaps
20. Film the cops
21. Film fascists
22. Film ICE
23. Write publicly about your experiences
24. Read an article from an independent journalist
25. Knit or sew warm clothes
26. Build portable heaters
27. Build a rolling cabin
28. Build a free library
29. Stock a free library
30. Set up a free fridge or pantry
31. Stock a free fridge or pantry
32. Set up a free clothing swap
33. Set up a support group
34. Set up ways to distribute life saving medicine
35. Provide free services like haircuts and laundry
36. Offer emotional support to those most affected
37. Set up escape routes for refugees
38. Offer a safe house
39. Study successful organizing strategies
40. Study successful antifascist tactics
41. Learn the history of cointelpro
42. Study ICE tactics
43. Study riot control tactics
44. Study other tactics of state repression
45. Study history of revolutionary struggles
46. Share a list of nearby bathroom codes
47. Put up event flyers
48. Train self defense
49. Train community defense
50. Learn de-escalation
51. Learn how to stop the bleed
52. Learn how to use Narcan
53. Learn how to do CPR
54. Make inspirational art
55. Make subversive art
56. Meet your neighbors
57. Organize a potluck with your neighbors
58. Learn how to shoot
59. Learn how to use other weapons
60. Learn how to use a radio
61. Learn how to navigate without GPS
62. Learn about local fascist groups
63. Learn fascist symbols and dog whistles
64. Learn the names of local fascists
65. Cover racist and fascist graffiti
66. Attend a know your rights training
67. Print and distribute zines
68. Print and distribute know your rights info
69. Stock up on food, water, and medications
70. Make an escape/evacuation plan
71. Make an emergency bag with needed supplies
72. Attend your local school board meeting
73. Maintain mental health so you can keep going
74. Maintain physical health to keep going
75. Practice digital security
76. Practice relational security
77. Talk to your coworkers and family about racism
78. Talk to your coworkers and family about sexism
79. Talk to people about other forms of bigotry
80. Call out problematic behavior
81. Invite your friends to protest with you
82. Do not comply with government orders
83. Comply as slowly and incompetently as possible
84. Waste government time and resources
85. Join a book club
86. Start a book club
87. Write a catchy protest chant or song
88. Add your voice to a chant at protests
89. Write a letter to your representative
90. Attend policy meetings
91. Wear a mask
92. Distribute masks
93. Distribute hygiene essentials
94. Distribute first aid supplies
95. Volunteer
96. Set up a phone tree to respond to ICE
97. Set up a phone tree for other emergencies
98. Offer pet care so others can do these things
99. Offer child care so others can do these things
100. Support diversity of tactics!